Zuzana is a collaborating lawyer at Urban & Hejduk with previous experience from a leading Czech law firm and the legal department of a major international company. She provides comprehensive legal advice to Czech and foreign clients in all phases of court proceedings. She has contributed to representing clients in dozens of complicated cases. As a part of her practice at the law firm, Zuzana specialises in representing corporations in unfair competition disputes and disputes concerning the protection of reputation. In addition, she specialises in contractual relations, including real estate law, in which she has extensive experience in preparing various types of contracts and advice on the interpretation of contractual provisions and related civil litigation.

As part of her practice, she also assists clients in the area of intellectual property rights, especially in registering trademarks at the Industrial Property Office and the European Union Intellectual Property Office as well as the subsequent protection of their rights through customs and the courts. Last but not least, Zuzana provides advice on civil, commercial, and employment law. She graduated from the Faculty of Law of Charles University and completed a six-month study programme at the Faculty of Law of Radboud University in Nijmegen, Netherlands.
