

ANDREJ ŠNAJDER

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

SPECIALISATION

- Banking, finance, and the capital market
- Personal data protection
- Law of obligations

T: +420 226 207 507

E: andrej.snajder@urbanhejduk.cz

Andrej is a collaborating attorney-at-law at Urban & Hejduk who, in addition to his legal practice, has worked for more than six years as head of compliance and AML at a leading Czech bank focusing on private clientele. Thus, he is an expert primarily in the areas of banking, capital markets, and securities. Andrej's practical experience in this area is aptly supplemented by the theoretical knowledge he has gained through the study of Finance at the Faculty of Finance and Accounting at the Prague University of Economics and Business. As part of his legal practice, Andrej also focuses on personal data protection and is the main expert at Urban & Hejduk in this area.

SELECTED REFERENCES

- Providing legal advice in implementing the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) at many businesses.
- Representing a stockbroker in disputes over damages with its clients.
- Providing legal advice in the area of financial market regulation to a leading financial consultant who is a part of an international financial group.
- Providing legal advice in the area of AML/CFT, including arranging employee training for a major real estate company.
- Representing a client in proceedings before the Financial Arbitrator in a dispute with an insurance company.
- Preparing a legal analysis for a foreign entity in relation to the provision of investment services and offering investment opportunities in the Czech Republic.
- Arranging the complicated process of cancelling bond issues for an investment fund.

MEMBERSHIP IN PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Czech Bar Association

LANGUAGES

Czech, English

EDUCATION

Prague University of Economics and Business, Faculty of Finance and Accounting, Ing., 2009

Charles University, Faculty of Law (Prague), Mgr., 2006